

As I understand it, the National Association of Broadcasters feel threatened by healthy competition provided by Satellite Radio. Please do not give in to the NAB lobbying effort. Satellite Radio fills a void by allowing me to access weather and traffic on demand without all the baggage of the standard radio format. If they are losing market share, tough. Satellite Radio is innovative and perhaps they need to deliver what their customers want.